THE COMMUNITY

From the Highway 3 and 43 intersection, continue north on 43 until the road ends—and the wilderness begins. A hidden gem of the East Kootenay, Elkford is a high-altitude Rocky Mountain municipality that calls to the wild at heart and adventurous in spirit. Without a traffic light or big-box store in sight, Elkford's rugged mountain ranges, iconic Canadian wildlife and untamed wilderness are truly an outdoor enthusiast's dream come true.

Wilderness has always been at the core of Elkford's identity. Built in 1971, as a homestead for mining industry workers and their families, this idyllic mountain town currently provides over 2,700 residents with postcard-perfect views, beautifully maintained community parks, a nine-hole golf course, hiking and mountain biking trails, a stunning ski hill, world-class fishing, emerald lakes and endless backcountry to explore.
